

In Highland Creek Meeting House, near Salem, Indiana, Blue River Quarterly Meeting met 6-14-'41

Highland's
representatives
not present

After silence and a vocal message, names of appointed representatives were read as follows: Grace Trueblood and Oliver Trueblood of Salem and Lucretia Franklin and Charles Whitney of M^cNabb and Martha Mills of Decatur. Lucretia Franklin and Martha Mills were present. Considerable discussion followed on the State of Society in the two neighborhoods.

Minutes of the Chicago Meeting were read including the "memoranda" attached

Clerks
reappointed

For the nominating committee, Millicent Baynes reported the recommendation that all of the present clerks should be retained. Leafa Baynes suggested that the name of the local clerk be substituted for her own, since she is not now Clerk of the Monthly Meeting. There was general approval of the names presented by the committee: namely — Alice Flitcraft, Luella Parker, Leafa Baynes, Kathryn G. Mills for assistants and Albert Mills for Clerk.

Clement B
Flitcraft's report

The treasurer's report was read. It shows delinquencies in the case of Clear Creek and Blue River, but a balance of $115.78

To audit the treasurer's books and to recommend the name of a treasurer, Chas. Baynes, Lucretia Franklin, and Fred Baynes were appointed

"Correct" was their report. Clement B. Flitcraft was named and retained with appreciation for a long and unerring service

Representa tives to Y.M.

To represent the Quarterly Meeting at Yearly Meeting the following named friends are appointed

Laura Smith	Luella Flitcraft,	Leafa Baynes,
Luella Parker,	Millicent Baynes,	Edna Wolf
Charles Whitney	Harold Flitcraft	Fred Baynes
Brooks Baynes

The First Query with appropriate reading from the Discipline was listened to.

C.O's.

The question of anticipating needs of conscientious objectors was before the meeting and belief expressed that Monthly Meeting should appoint committees to be ready to advise and to contribute financially to needs should they arise

Letters were before the meeting concerning a group of Friends in St. Lous which may decide to affiliate with one of our Monthly Meetings. Hope was expressed that this may be the outcome of friendly visitation and correspondence

The proposal of remodeling the Yearly Meeting-House was mentioned for information.

Also the wish of the Central Committee to use Jeannette Stetson for some general service.

Concluding minute read about 4:15 pm.

Albert T. Mills Clk Leafa Baynes, asst.

Memoranda 6-14 & 6-15, 41

Plenty of rain had conditioned hills and valleys with green, and a little too much rain was delaying the harvests of wheat and of hay. Our evening meeting was social, the place — the home of Elwood and Helen Brooks in Salem. Supper was enjoyed, then mirth evoking games. Youth and age mingled delightfully.

Clement Flitcraft wanted especially to attend Q. Mtg. but Luella thot it inadvisable due to a rise of blood pressure.
