Satisfactory reports on the State of Society were read from Madison, Clear Creek, 57th St., St. Louis, and oral statements heard regarding Oak Park and Blue River.

From the meetings of Madison and St. Louis the statements were particularly comprehensive.

The Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved excepting for no record of representatives from 57th St. Permission was granted to supply them.

The Treasurer's report was read, its filing authorized and to audit it and nominate a treasurer, Martha Mills and Humphrey Baynes were named.

The auditors reported that the report is correct and that Clement B. Flitcraft should be retained. Very cordial approval was expressed.

Fred Baynes for the nominating committee reported that Albert T. Mills and Robert M^{ac}Gonigle should be retained as clerks and that Harold W Flitcraft and Caroline Wills should displace Chas. Smith and Grace Benjamin as trustees of funds. One vacancy was caused by Chas. C. Smith and Grace is not in a position to be active.

Reported that Alice Flitcraft, Caroline Wills, Harold Flitcraft, Geo Bent and Louis Grier went to St. Louis on a mission of greeting to the new meeting there. The get-together proving a most pleasant accession.

Lucretia Wood writes a letter of warm appreciation on account of the cordial letters received from the Quarterly and Monthly Meetings.

Report on clothing was given by Martha Mills. 30 T have gone from the Chicago branch since Jan. first. And there is need for a continuation of contributions.

Louis Grier related activities emphasizing summer schools and Camp Ill-Ind-O.

The activities of the Women's League for Peace and Freedom were described by May Jones, president for Illinois.

Appeals for letters by the Washington letter of Ray Wilson were read and the LaFollette proposal for Congressional reorganization considered.

To represent us at Yearly Meeting, Charles Whitney, Audry Whitney, Shirley Glover, Robt. MacGonagle Alice Flitcraft Paul Hieronymous and Edgar Anderson were designated.

The 3rd Query was read and moments of meditation given in prayerful hope that difference that has caused hurts among us may be settled in the spirit of friendly good will.

Albert T Mills Clerk
Leafa Baynes Asst. Clerk protem.

Memo. To messages were given the worship period preceding the business meeting and four on First Day. There were four Sunday School classes. Sylvester Jones was the speaker First day afternoon when he referred to Friends in Mexico, Cuba, Spain, and Africa. A pot luck supper was enjoyed at Elwood and Helen Brooks Saturday evening. Games under the leadership of Clara Baynes were enjoyed. The neighborhood is enjoying the return of boys who have seen service. Brooks Baynes introduced Sylvester Jones. Two of Fred and Leofa Bayne's sons are home again. Some men singers appeared for quartette and duet singing Sunday afternoon. The out-of doors dinner was satisfying — excellent in quantity and quality.
