H. S. Ann Hubbell feels Mtg. needs more spiritual maturity. We need to talk directly to the individual who has done something that bothered us. Talk with love + caring. Don't use situation to increase your own self righteousness.
Be angry + sin not - ^{Bible} Mariah Vogel. Cecil Smith has questions
None from Carbondale, Columbia, Rolla, Springfield

if Quakers feel there is a time to be angry.
Not anger that hurts another person or does no good to reach a solution.
Each person has to work out for herself what to do with anger. how to deal with it. Physical outlets - ironing, biking, scrubbing floors, etc.
Historic peace church "let's be not angry. We are human like everyone else."
