Oct.
26 2:00 Meeting for Business
3:30 snacks
3:45 Panel Discussion

A number of young people who have taken positions against militarism and war will meet with us in an informal discussion. Also participating in the discussion will be Rev. Robt. Epps, a member of the Experimental Campus Ministry, and a person with extensive experience in draft counseling.

6:00 Supper

8:00 "Albert Schweitzer's Legacy in 1968"
- Herbert Spiegelberg

"European Impressions and Experiences"
- Eldora Spiegelberg

Herbert and Eldora Spiegelberg spent two months in Europe this summer. Herbert, professor of philosophy at Washington University, attended the International Congress of Philosophy held in Vienna. Heightened by personal experience, Herbert has always had great interest in Schweitzer's life and thought. This summer he had conversations on the disposition of Schweitzer's spiritual and philosophical writings and the future of his humanitarian efforts.

Eldora was a delegate to the International Congress of Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.

Sun.: 10:30 Meeting for Worship

26

Children of junior and senior high school age may wish to attend the afternoon discussion as we hope to have one student of high school age as a panel participant. Other children may wish to engage in outdoor playground activities at Tilles Park near the Meetinghouse. Adult supervision will be provided. No planned activity for children will be scheduled after supper; however, babysitter supervision in the homes of those providing hospitality for visiting Friends families can be arranged.

All are cordially invited to attend these sessions and to be our guests for the weekend. Hospitality can be arranged by writing to:
