Blue River Quarterly Meeting in session in Benjaminville Meeting House, near Holder, Illinois.

The Clerk of the Chicago's 57 St. Monthly Meeting informs us of the appointment of the following representatives: Clement Flitcraft, Luella Flitcraft, Robt Balderson and Martha Balderson.

And the Clerk of Clear Creek, of these:

Lucretia S. Franklin,	Wilbur S. Sutherland,
Clarence C. Mills,	Edna W. Wolf
Lula K. Mills,	Mattie E. Mills

All are present excepting

Wilbur S. Sutherland and Lula E. Mills.

In behalf of the representatives appointed to attend Illinois Yearly Meeting, Edna Wolf made a brief and encouraging report.

By others, hints were given of the success of the International Relations Institute at Northwestern University and also of the General Conference at Cape May, New Jersey.

The growth of Friendly fellowship was pointed out by Robert Balderson who has recently been an acceptable representative to two Yearly Meetings — Illinois, of the Conference group, and Western, of the Five Years' group.

The need for an international bond so that there may be a common fellowship was urged by Camille Solomon, who with her brother are visitors from Philadelphia Yearly Meeting.

An impressive lesson was read from the Book of Discipline on "Simplicity, Sincerity, Moderation."

Records A new interest develops in the matter of local records. A request has come for a complete compilation of all our records by some one who would publish them in book form. And this Meeting is informed that Benjaminville's records are lost.

Therefore, the following-named committee will compile a bibliography of records available, prepare a list of records that appear to be lost, and report at some future quarterly meeting:

Lucretia Franklin,	Creta Hill
Arthur Benjamin,	Harold Flitcraft
Letha Baynes	Luella Parker

The Church of Tomorrow and What Friends have to Contribute was the subject of an address by Robt. Balderson, of Chicago. He favors mergers and paid community helpers.

Inspired by the address, pleased by commingling with friends it has been good to meet, and especially grateful to Benjaminville whose welcome has been hearty, we conclude to meet at Clear Creek next Eleventh Month.

Albert T. Mills, Clerk.
Luella Parker, Asst.

Footnote: A meeting for worship was held between 11 and 12:20^(?) in which there were three messages. The day was fine. Two loads came from Chicago, two from Clear Creek, and two members from Decatur.
