

Blue River Quarterly Meeting of Friends met second month 24th 1934 at 3–P.M. in the Library of the 57th St Meeting

After a half hours' worship period the business session was opened with the Clerks in their places.

The minutes of last meeting were read.

Reports from Clear Creek and ~~Chi~~ 57th St. Monthly Meetings showed the following representatives appointed.

Charles A Whitney
Ethel M. Bumgarner
Edna W. Wolf.
Arthur G. Wilson
J. Turner Mills
Kathryn G. Mills
Gynetha Wilson
Clarence C. Mills
Sarah M. Mills
Wilbur Sutherland
Robert Balderston
Elizabeth Smith
Ralph Lane
Anna Hill
Fern Drummond

Nine of these were present Several from Chicago Monthly Meeting and Jane Stetson from New York Monthly Meeting were welcome guests.

A friendly letter from Thomas and Marian Jenkins, in answer to the one sent them after our last Quarterly meeting, was read and appreciated.

Nom. To nominate clerks for the ensuing year to report at next meeting we appoint – Arthur
Com Wilson, Lucretia Franklin, Jeanette Stetson and Helen May Brooks.

Letters Lucretia Franklin, Raymond Wilson and Ralph Lane were asked to prepare letters of of protest of the Government navy expenditure to be sent to the President and our State Senators.
protest

They were also asked to prepare letters to the President of Ohio State University and others in regard to the seven students who were suspended for asking for exemption from Military Training on the basis of Conscientious Objection.

Letters were prepared to President Roosevelt Hon. Cordell Hull, Hon. Gerald P. Nye, Sen President Bromley Oxman. DePauw Un. President Charles Hart. Columbus O. Un. Mrs. Telfair, Sabina O. Mother of one of the boys.

To change date of 2nd mo Quarter To consider ~~the~~ changing the time of the Quarterly meeting in second month to coincide with the time of Chicago Quarterly Meeting the meeting united in appointing a committee to meet with a like committee from Chicago Quarterly Meeting to decide upon a date suitable to both bodies.

Com. Luella W. Flitcraft
Robert Balderston
Elizabeth Smith
Albert Mills.

The subject – “The Meeting for Worship” was discussed by several present.

Albert T. Mills gave a talk on Educating for Leisure –

The meeting concludes.

Laura W. Smith Clerk
Alice B. Flitcraft Asst. Clerk,