The representatives report they mostly attended the Yearly meeting, and have forwarded about seven hundred and fifty copies of the London general epistle: one of which was read in this meeting to satisfaction. —The committee, appointed to visit friends of Elevalus, produced the following report: We, of the committee appointed to visit friends of Elevalus, on their request for a monthly meeting, all attended, except one; and after being with them, were united in believing, that it would be best to grant their request, by establishing a monthly meeting, to be held on the first seventh day in each month, and known by the name of Bloomfield Monthly meeting; and their Preparative meeting to be called by the same name; signed on behalf of the committee

Thomas Maris
Martha Thompson.

The report of the committee, being united with by this, and women's meeting, the following friends are appointed to attend the opening of said meeting, at the time proposed, in the twelfth month next, and report their care to next Quarterly meeting, (namely,) John H. Bray, Jonathan Jones, James Rhodes, Jeremiah Hadley, and Christopher Hill.
