Adult Program:

Danielle Chynoweth, Township Supervisor of Cunningham Township, Champaign County, Illinois, will be our Saturday morning speaker. Danielle is an attendee of Urbana-Champaign Friends Meeting, and a longtime activist in the Urbana-Champaign area. She was elected in 2017 as supervisor of Cunningham Township, which coincides geographically with the City of Urbana. Her time in office has been marked by novel use of the township office to serve the interests of marginalized people, and to provide material relief to those in need. She will speak to us about her experiences in this work and the challenges involved

High School Friends (9th–12th graders) will attend adult programming, or assist with the Younger Children's Program. High schoolers may sleep as a group in the Retreat Center.

Middle School Program: (5th–8th graders) We will be preparing lunch for the whole group on Saturday as a service project. Other fun activities include walks around the lake, a Godly Play story and sand castle building on the beach. We will sleep as a group in the Retreat Center.

Younger Children's Program: (4th grade and younger) Theme: Meeting for Worship and Animals. Details TBA.
