

Blue River Quarterly Meeting of Friends in session at the Friends' Meeting House McNabb. Ills. 11-12-1932

The minutes of last meeting were read.

Representatives were present from 57th St and Clear Creek Monthly Meetings.

Robert and Martha Balderston of Chicago were present and added much to our meetings by their presence and council.

A communication was received from Representatives from Highlands Creek Monthly Meeting regretting their inability to attend.

It was suggested that the representatives be asked to give some report of State of Society of their respective meeting.

A verbal report was given of some of the activities of 57th St. Meeting.

45 minutes is devoted to meeting for worship, during this time a school for religious education is held for the children. Following the period for worship one hour is given over to a forum led by authoritative speakers. A series of lectures on "Race Relations" has just been completed. The subject to be taken up for the next few months is "Problems of Crime"
