

Blue River Quarterly Meeting held at Clear Creek Meeting House near McNabb Illinois 11/10/28.

Representatives appointed to attend this meeting – are Chicago Monthly Meeting – Thomas A. Jenkins Charles C. Smith, Marian Jenkins and Lamartine Hood.

Clear Creek Monthly Meeting – Josiah Tomlinson Ray Bumgarner, Laurence Ash, Gynetha Wilson, Clarence C. Mills and Kathryn G. Mills.

Illness prevented Charles Smith and Lamartine Hood from being present.

In the absence of the Assistant Clerk Alice E. Tomlinson, Sara Mills was appointed for the day.

The minutes of Blue River Quarter held at Benjaminville 9/8/28 were read and approved.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to bring forward a name for Clerk to fill vacancy, reported that Ruth B. Ash had been asked to serve and that she felt she could not accept this office. The meeting, as a committee of the whole united in suggesting the name of Elizabeth Smith of Chicago to fill the vacancy at the Quarterly Meeting in Chicago, in second month, and at Salem, Indiana in Fifth month at which time the nominating committee bring forward names for clerks for the ensuing year.

The Quarterly Meeting adopts the Resolution on the Multilateral Treaty, sent out by a state wide committee of churches and other organizations.

Foster Heacock and Thomas A. Jenkins are asked to prepare a less formal resolution to be read at the meeting Sunday afternoon (11/11/28) and secure as many signatures as possible; this paper to be sent to Washington promptly.

The Treasurer is directed to send notices to all monthly meetings of their quotas to Blue River Quarterly Meeting. A letter from the Regional Committee of the Friends Service Committee of Oct. 12, was read and brought to mind the many opportunities and avenues of service of which each individual should take advantage.

There being no further business we conclude to meet in Chicago in Second Month.

Copy of Resolution presented Sunday P.M.

Whereas:– The President of the United States has recently negotiated a treaty with foreign powers renouncing war as an instrument of national policy in their relations with one another; and whereas:– No more important measure for replacement of force by negotiation, conference and arbitration has been made in the history of this nation for the attainment of permanent peace:–

Resolved: That the undersigned urge the Senate of the United States to ratify promptly and without essential change, the said treaty.– The Senators representing the states of Illinois and Indiana are particularly asked to give their unqualified support to its ratification.

Signed on behalf of the Blue River Quarterly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends
