

Blue River Quarterly Meeting held at Benjaminville, Illinois. 9/8/28

Representatives appointed to this meeting are as follows –

Chicago Monthly Meeting – Clement B. Flitcraft, Thomas A. Jenkins and Elizabeth M. Smith.

Clear Creek Monthly Meeting – Mary Wilson Laura W. Smith, Clarence C. Mills, Ray Bumgarner, Edna W. Wolf and Charles Whitney.

Blue River Monthly Meeting – no report of representatives appointed and no members from that meeting present.

Benjaminville Monthly meeting appointed no official delegates but several were present at the business session Saturday afternoon.

Echoes from Illinois Yearly Meeting were listened to.

The reading of the 8th Query on Educational Relations and Religious Education and the 11th Query on Civic Relations brought out some discussion.

Friends were urged to be prepared to meet problems and changes along Educational lines and to take part in creating public opinion.

The Librarian reported that several copies of the new discipline are on hand at 30 cents per copy.

A letter was read from the Friends Service office at Richmond Indiana. All Friends are reminded that the service committee is not a thing a way off but a thing of which we are a definite part Friends have opportunity to do various types of service — namely — writing timely articles for newspapers and the press on Peace and other topics — thereby creating public opinion.

Elizabeth H. Coale did this type of service for years after she became inactive in our meetings for business and worship.

Lucretia S. Franklin — Chairman of the Advancement Committee reported on work being done in that committee. Foster and Margaretta Blackburn Heacock will be at Liberty in November to give six months of their time to Indiana and Illinois localities and at Waynesville.

The assistant clerk read a letter from Luella W. Flitcraft asking to be released from Blue River Quarterly Meeting clerkship.

Edna Wolf, Alice Tomlinson, Elizabeth Smith, Allen Brown and Leo Bedell were named to bring forward names of clerk at our Quarterly Meeting held at Clear Creek 11/10/28.

There being no further business we conclude to meet at Clear Creek in Eleventh Month.

Respectfully submitted

Luella W. Flitcraft

Luella C. Parker

Clerks.