

Blue River Quarterly Meeting of Friends held at Benjaminville 9–13–1931

Sarah Poulson was appointed assistant clerk for the day.

Representatives appointed to attend this meeting are Charles and Elizabeth Smith from Chicago.

Edith Mills, Mattie Mills, Ray Bumgarner, Gynetha Wilson from Clear Creek.

The Chicago representatives were both present and Edith Mills Mattie Mills and Ray Bumgarner from Clear Creek.

No report from Blue River.

Several members of Benjaminville Meeting were present.

Robert and Martha Balderson of the 57 st meeting in Chicago were welcome guests, who added much to our meetings both by their presence and council.

The minutes of last meeting were read.

Echos from Yearly Meeting were given by Elizabeth Smith, Harold Flitcraft and others.

The twelfth query with the accompanying princiles and applications was read and discussed.

The chairman of the Yearly Meeting Advancement Com. asked for suggestions for the work of Foster and Margaretta Heacock for the coming winter

The Quarterly meeting approves this work and hopes it may be continued.

The meeting concludes to meet in 11th mo at Clear Creek.

Laura Smith Clerk

Sarah Poulson Asst Clerk pro. Tem

Note – After the business meeting Friends settled into the silence of meeting for worship. Several very acceptable messages were given among which were – “Jesus and His Common Sence” “In the Silence of the Meeting” “Silence for Meditation.”

At the noon hour a bounteous basket dinner and social mingling were enjoyed by all after which Robert Balderson entertained under the trees with a pleasing address on “Building the Country Community for the Future.”

Reading
12th.
Query.