1. Opened in silent worship
2. The meeting heard State of Society reports or less formal accounts about member meetings and worship groups.
 - a. Bloomington-Normal continues to meet for worship. A women's meeting for eating continues. 5 children have been taking part in meeting.
 - b. Clear Creek Meeting carries on with in-person weekly worship, and monthly hybrid meeting for business. Members still work on maintaining Meetinghouse grounds.
 - i. Burlington worship group has been taking place through zoom & hybrid.
 - ii. Macomb worship group seems to still be on hiatus.
 - c. Columbia Meeting: No news from Columbia.
 - d. Southern Illinois continues meeting for worship with not many participants. They include hybrid worship with irregular attendance from afar. They welcome occasional visitors.
 - e. Spoon River: No news from meeting though it seems to be donating regularly to ILYM.
 - f. St Louis Meeting has enjoyed outdoor and hybrid worship. It has been concerned with conflict resolution issues in the community. First Day school continues with older ones giving First Day to younger ones.
 - g. Urbana Champaign has been doing outdoor and hybrid meetings. Children's meeting is going strong. Meeting remains engaged with donating to local causes. Meeting welcomes 3 new members.
 - i. Springfield worship group continues to meet and conduct business.
3. Treasurer's report was accepted. Report below.
4. Fall BRQ 2022, Sep 16-18, 2022: Peter Lasersohn volunteered to be organizer.
