

Blue River Quarterly Meeting of Friends met at Yearly Meeting House near McNabb, Illinois Eleventh month 14th 1924 [sic]

Reports from Chicago, Blue River and Clear Creek monthly meetings are received showing that Isaac P. Wierman, Clement B. Flitcraft, Albert Miller, Marie Frederickson, Jeannette Stetson, Loran Payne, Charles Baynes, J. Stanley Brooks, Gladys Mills, Mary Wilson Charles Whitney and Joshua M. Bumgarner were appointed as representatives to this meeting. Six of these are present. Written reason for absence is received from Loran B. Payne. J. Warner Coale is present from Benjaminville but no report from that meeting.

The minutes of the Eighth month Quarter were read. The clerk reports having attended to the business entrusted to him.

The recommendations for consideration by the Yearly Meeting of discontinuing the written answers to the queries were incorporated in our reports and forwarded in regular order. We are informed that the Yearly Meeting felt best to leave the matter of written answers as now directed until the proposed new joint discipline comes up for adoption. The Yearly Meeting did not take favorable action as the discontinuance of reading the epistles in body of the Meeting.

Interesting verbal reports were listened to from Chicago members as their discussions and comparisons of proposed new joint revision of discipline. Also, a report of an enthusiastic report meeting in Oak Park addressed by Mrs. Morrison and Senator McKinley on the World Court situation.

The annual report of the Trustees of the Quarterly Meeting's Relief Funds is received. It follows, —
